

Orange County Youth & Family Services Division

PARENTING SUPPORT SQUAD

Program Overview

Parenting Support Squad (P.S.S.) is a prevention and intervention program aimed at assisting teen parents and families in the Orange County community. Services are aimed to promote the education, support, and resources for youth in regards to teen pregnancy and parenting education in our community.

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

- Individual (with or without children) ages 12-19
- Reside in Orange County
- Must be a student in Orange county public, private or alternative schools
- Demonstrate a need in the scope of service

DESIRED OUTCOMES

- Greater knowledge of sexuality, reproductive health, and parenting
- Lower rates of unexpected pregnancy
- Higher rates of abstinence
- Higher rates of contraceptive use
- Improved access and receipt of medical care/reproductive health services and parenting

SERVICE TYPES

- Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACES)
- Parenting Program
- Teen Pregnancy Hotline
- Store/resources
- Transportation
- Case Management

Parenting Support Squad

1718 E. Michigan Street

Orlando, Florida 32806

Phone: 407-257-1556

Fax: 407-893-3604

E-mail: PSSreferrals@ocfl.net

