TEEN VOLUNTEERS

Teens, age 16 or older, can volunteer in a variety of ways with Orange County Parks and Recreation. If a student is under the age of 16 and wants to volunteer, he/she must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian at all times during their volunteer opportunity.

As a Teen Volunteer, you can:

- Gain experience and learn responsibility
- Work with professional adults
- Help meet real needs in our community
- Enjoy the satisfaction that comes from serving others
- Earn community service hours for school, college entrance and scholarship requirements

Opportunities include:

- Camp Scooter (ages 13-15)
- Afterschool programs
- Athletic programs
- Office assistant

ADULT VOLUNTEERS

Opportunities for Adult Volunteers include:

- Coaching youth sports
- Afterschool tutoring
- Summer camp
- Park beautification
- Special events
- Office assistant

To become an Orange County Parks and Recreation STARS Teen, Adult or Group Volunteer, you must complete a Volunteer Application and a Florida Department of Law Enforcement Background Screening Request Form (background check is free of charge). Forms can be turned in at the park where you want to volunteer.

It is time to stand and cheer for the doer, the achiever, the one who recognizes the challenge and does something about it.
