Orange County Mayor Teresa Jacobs' Walk-Ride-Thrive! pedestrian safety initiative was created in an effort to keep families and children safe. This important initiative strives to establish and maintain a coordinated, comprehensive and consistent response to Orange County's pedestrian and bicycle safety issues.

By expanding on the efforts of Orange County's regional transportation partners and other safety initiatives, Walk-Ride-Thrive! addresses pedestrian safety concerns through coordination, capital planning codes and related policies.

As our region continues to grow, Mayor Jacobs wants to ensure that Orange County citizens and visitors of all ages enjoy a community with safe transportation options and an enriched quality of life.
