XENA

Xena did a great job raising her 5 Manx kittens and they've all found wonderful forever homes. Now it's her turn to find that kind of love. She's still young and playful and would make a great companion for someone who has time to play with her (chasing string toys is her favorite). Xena has been spayed, vaccinated and microchipped so she's available for immediate adoption. Visit this sweet girl today!
