Orange County Government Property and Records:

The employee agrees that documents or other records required to be retained and used, developed or revised while remote working will be securely transferred no later than the following in-office workday to the official workstation.

The employee understands and agrees that all equipment, records, files, manuals, forms, materials, supplies, computer programs and other materials furnished by Orange County, or generated or obtained on behalf of Orange County during the course of employment shall remain the property of Orange County. The employee understands that he/she is the holder of this property for the sole use and benefit of the County and will take all reasonable precautions to safely keep and preserve such property, as well as maintain confidentiality except as disclosure is required in normal business operations.

Termination of Remote Work Agreement:

Remote Working is a privilege rather than a universal employee benefit or right. Orange County has the right to offer remote work to an employee and to unilaterally terminate a Remote Work Agreement at any time. Employees do not have a property interest in Remote Work. In no circumstances are employees entitled to due process related to any County decision on Remote Work issues, including approvals denials, or a County decision to discontinue a Remote Work Agreement, and all such decisions are not grievable.

Acknowledgment:

I have read and understood this agreement and the remote work guidelines and agree to abide by and operate in accordance with the terms and conditions described in both documents. I agree that the sole purpose of this agreement is to regulate remote work and that it constitutes neither an employment contract nor an amendment to any existing contract or County policy.
